It's a Winner!

The votes are in, except in Florida where they don't matter anyway, and the winner of the "name the bulletin poll" is Kol Kneseth Israel... The Voice of Kneseth Israel.

There will be those who will continue to call this "The Bulletin" and that's alright too. But it's more than that.

Ha Kol...is exactly what this publication is intended to be... your voice, your interests, your concerns all combined to be the voice of our congregation and Judaism in the Fox Valley. This is the opportunity for everyone to hear and be heard. We want to know about you, what you're involved in, what your children and grandchildren do, what is fun and what is not. What an exciting concept!

As I have in the past, I invite your participation. Your articles are needed, your suggestions and thoughts are important to share with our CKI family. This is, after all, your publication.

We want to provide something of substance that you can share with pride with friends and family and the community at large. Ha Kol can be a tool for spreading our message of enjoyment, involvement and fulfillment in being 21st Century Jews. Enjoy!

“Pauses Between the Notes”

Last month, I mentioned the culmination of the High Holy Day season is the celebration of the Torah reading cycle on Simhat Torah, this year on Saturday night, Oct. 18. Unfortunately perceived like other occasions to be for children, Simhat Torah cannot truly be appreciated until one can really appreciate Torah. As a child, I certainly anticipated the seven Torah processions (hakafot), the flags, the singing (my appreciation of caramel apples came later, though)...but did I really understand what it was all about? No, not until I was at least in high school and then not until I was a student at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. Not only did my appreciation of Torah advance with time, but it was at the Seminary that I participated in the celebration of Simhat Torah like nowhere else. We had hakafot with spirited dancing and singing with people who knew and wanted to know the joy and the beauty of Jewish life and being a Jew. The first hakafah lasted easily 30 minutes and we were gratefully exhausted when the evening was over (let alone the annual “Simhat Torah Bash” we hosted for 400 people in our dorm that night, the Mathilde Schechter Residence Hall, thank you, members of Women’s League for Conservative Judaism). And we got up the next morning, God knows how, and did it all over again, this time concluding and beginning again the Torah reading cycle.

Sadly, in many Conservative synagogues today, Jews are often uncomfortable celebrating Jewish events as Jews do. Simhat Torah has become almost a perfunctory occasion, less than what it ought to be, partly because we are less familiar with the beauty of Torah than previously. We avoid opportunities to learn Torah, either because we think we can’t, we don’t believe in God (and in that case many have misperceptions about God which contribute to this unfortunate factor), or we think Torah is irrelevant to modern life, to name a few. There are many levels to appreciate Torah, in contextual and interpretive ways. We have various ways to achieve that, at home in individual study, on Shabbat and Holy Days together in synagogue or through adult education offerings. The time for excuses must stop now. America, the great haven for Jewish life will no longer be that if we don’t educate ourselves and our children by being living Jewish role models. If we don’t act now, assimilation and intermarriage will surely be our downfall in the land that gave us so much and offered us the greatest potential in Jewish history.

One aspect of Torah that was exciting for me was unlocking the mystery of how it is chanted in public and how that method lends to the understanding of the text. That love affair began at age 9 and by age 11, I was professionally employed by a major North Shore congregation as a ba’al korei (Torah Chanter) in their main service. The skill improved and not only deepened my love for Torah, but opened some important Jewish doors and provided significant supplementary income during college. My intensive Seminary learning only enhanced what was already a well-developed art form.

In my previous pulpit in New York, we had people lined up waiting to chant regularly from the Torah and my adult students then are now teachers of Torah chant for others. Sadly, I have not had the success in our congregation to transmit that desire/passion to others to want to learn to chant from the ...greater lay participation in the public chanting of the Torah...

Torah. But we are in crisis beyond the layperson’s need to acquire Torah for themselves. We need to have greater lay participation in the public chanting of the Torah, and not only when I’m away on a Shabbat. Congregants should regularly be a part of Torah chant to ensure it continues for the future and to provide ourselves with an “intimate Torah experience,” like *t’fillin (see the January 2004 edition for more on t’fillin).

I am more than willing to work with people, individually or as a group, to learn how to chant from the Torah. Many of us already have some basic familiarity, if we can chant v’Ahavta and /or vaYomer, during the service. And that doesn’t mean learning to chant an entire portion right away. Start with 3 verses. Chant 3 verses once a month here on Shabbat or a holiday. We’ll all be better for it.

Be in touch soon (phone, e-mail, smoke signal) and let’s have some other aspect of Torah to celebrate by next Simhat Torah.

Faithfully yours,

Hazzan Alan Smolen

Hazzan Smolen is always available should a need arise. But, he cannot know if something has occurred in your life which would be helped by his visit if you don’t call him. Hospitals are very protective of patient lists due to “right of privacy” rules and it is difficult for Hazzan Smolen to find out if congregants have been admitted. Please state your religious and congregation affiliation if admitted to a hospital. This information is to serve pastoral needs of patients, not to persecute them. If a family member or friend is in the hospital or ill, please call Hazzan Smolen so he may tend to their spiritual needs.

Message from the President

"I AM A JEW!"

The moment I actually realized that – I can't say. Maybe it was when I stood under the chupah with my beautiful bride and broke the glass. Maybe it was when I said kaddish the first time for my beloved father. Maybe it was when bubbe took me to shul. Maybe it was when our sons came home crying because the neighbor kids called them "dirty Jews." (Our youngest, Marc, said to Fern, "I take a bath every night. I'm not dirty.") Maybe it was when the boy across the street came over to spit in our new car. Maybe it was the skinhead in my expository writing class who glared at me as he handed in his essay proclaiming "der Fuhrer will rise again." Or maybe it was the first time our family gathered at the Passover seder.

I can't say. All I know is that it must have been a strong epiphany.

I wasn't raised in a particularly religious family albeit they were a wonderful one. They were Jewish by traditions and gastronomy more than anything. And I wasn't raised in a Jewish part of town. At Blaine Elementary School, Stanley and I were the two Jews in class. But something must have happened along the way to make "I AM A JEW" really stick.

I've never worn my Judaism on my sleeve (like I do my emotions), but I have never hidden the fact either. I remember the first time a student in a class realized I was Jewish. He said, "You're Jewish?"

"Yes," I said not wanting to make much of it.

"You don't look Jewish."

"Oh, and what do you suppose Jewish looks like?" I asked him.

"I guess pretty good because one thing is there's money."

So I started educating this student and myriads to follow. And some of my best was when I directed theater and was able to teach kids who I was and who they were without Jewishness being any consideration at all. Did they learn when they performed in or worked backstage on Diary of Anne Frank, Fiddler on the Roof and The World of Sholom Aleichem? You bet they did. And when I taught The Chosen to my AP English students, did they learn? You bet they did. And when they asked a question about something Jewish, I said, "I can answer that. I am a Jew." And did I destroy some of their stereotypes and preconceived notions and teach them to consider people carefully no matter who they are? I sure hope I did.

...and what do you suppose Jewish looks like?

We must all realize that as Jews we do not live in a vacuum. Continuing to educate others is an important ingredient of our survival, especially with what is being promulgated in the world around us. At these times, maybe it IS time to wear our Judaism on our sleeve. We must realize that during Yom Kippur we must focus on our shortcomings. We must realize that maybe the worst sin we commit throughout the course of the year is that we do not let go of a transgression once we realize the error of our ways. We must not be held back from being the best Jew we can be. We do count. We do make a difference.

Do you recall the moment you realized that you are a Jew? Perhaps not. But joining Kneseth Israel can certainly be that moment. One of our many goals is Jewish continuity as we seek to preserve and pass on our heritage to the next generation. Everything we do here emphasizes that Judaism is something to be lived today, not just something to be learned for tomorrow. Only an alive tradition can be passed on. We strive to make Judaism come alive for you. Be here. Be a part of what we do. Be a part of who you are. Make that commitment this year. Be able to say, proudly – "I AM A JEW!"

Blood Drive, Sunday, November 9

The preservation of human life [known as pikuah nefesh] is obligatory, not optional," writes Rabbi Joseph Prouser in The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism Review. To meet that obligation, volunteer donors are sought for the first-ever CKI Blood Drive, to be held here on Sunday, November 9, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., in cooperation with Heartland Blood Centers.

Every three seconds, a patient needs life-sustaining donated blood – an accident victim, a patient undergoing surgery, or a patient receiving treatment for leukemia, cancer or another disease. The demand for blood is greater today than ever, as the nation's supply needs constant replenishment. An estimated 8 million people donate blood in the United State each year, but many more donors are needed. Heartland Blood Centers, a non-profit medical organization supplying all blood and blood products to 34 Illinois and Indiana hospitals, must collect 450 pints of voluntarily donated blood every day in order to meet patient transfusion needs in the area it serves.

Donating blood is relatively quick and painless. After answering a few questions and screening for blood pressure and iron, the actual donation process usually takes less than 15 minutes. Afterwards, donors enjoy some light treats and liquids before being released.

Donors must be 17 or older, although 16-year-olds may donate with parental consent. Donors must be in good health, feeling well, and weigh at least 110 pounds. It is recommended to eat something within the four hours preceding the donation, and that the person has not donated within the previous eight weeks. Please remember to bring a photo I.D. For more information on qualification, go to: www.heartlandbc.org/donor_qualifications_fp.htm.

We've set a goal of 40 units for this drive, which will be open to the public. Encourage your friends and neighbors to join! Walk-ins are warmly welcomed, but if you'd like to reserve a specific time, contact Event Coordinator Paul Glaser, at (630) 513-8268, or at pinchasyakov@lightfirst.com.

So eat your spinach on Saturday night, have a hearty breakfast, and then come on down and help save a life on the 9th!

Ha Kol Information

Kol Kneseth Israel is published monthly by Congregation Kneseth Israel of Elgin, Illinois. It is mailed to CKI members via first class postage. Non-members who would like to receive a copy may do so by forwarding a yearly donation of $18 (Chai) to cover cost of production and mailing. Make checks payable to CKI.

Simon Study Group

Come enjoy an active and lively discussion group on Sunday Mornings. Discussion of world issues and study of Jewish content are the mainstays. At present, the study emphasis is the enlightening essays in "Etz Hayimi" torah and commentary.

The Drs Albert and Frieda Simon Study Group has been a part of CKI for 50 years. Meetings are open to all. There is no cost. The group meets at 10:00 each Sunday morning at the Synagogue.

Wearing the Tallit

Wearing a tallit (Jewish prayer garment) is a mitzvah (commandment) from the Torah and is part of the protocol in our synagogue. Jewish males, and Jewish females who wish (both over the age of bar/bat-mitzvah), should wear a tallit at Shabbat and other morning services. It is a way to be enwrapped by the Divine Presence, the tzitzit (tassels) in the four corners remind us of all of our Jewish obligations (mitzvot). The tallit was also the inspiration for the flag of the State of Israel, so we demonstrate our love of the Jewish homeland by wearing it. Anyone who has questions about how to put it on, wear it, or simply wants more information, should feel free to be in touch with Hazzan Smolen.

Host an Oneg!

Celebrating an anniversary, a special birthday or simcha of any kind or just want to have fun? We are looking for people to host a Friday Evening Shabbat Oneg. Good dates are still available. Its fun, easy and always appreciated!!! Call Karen Sigal at 847-429-0016 and get the details.

THE M'ZUZAH – Part I

The m'zuzah consists of a container containing a parchment with Deuteronomy 6:4-9 and 11:13-21 lettered on the front and God's name Shaddai (Almighty) lettered on the back. Usually the container has a hole through which the word Shaddai (יְשַׁדַּי) can be seen. Otherwise the container should have the word Shaddai or the letter shin (ש) displayed on the front.

Histories of M'zuzah

Many people date the m'zuzah back to the time when we were slaves in Egypt. Egyptians were known to place a sacred document at the entrance to their houses.

The word "m'zuzah" means "door post" and refers to the sentence in Deuteronomy 6:9, 11:20: "inscribe them on the door posts of your homes and on your gates." Originally an abbreviated version of the Sh'ma was carved into the door post. Later, the present twenty-two lines were written on a piece of parchment and fastened to the door post. Then it was placed in a hollow reed and attached to the door post. Finally it was placed in containers similar to those used at present.

Significance

There has been much disagreement about the significance of the m'zuzah.

Some people think of it as an amulet, which helps protect their house.

At one point kabalistic (Jewish mystical) symbols and inscriptions were added to the inscription in the m'zuzah to enhance its protective function. The Shaddai on the back of the parchment is a remnant of this and was an abbreviation for "Guardian of the doors of Israel" (Shomeir D'latot Yisra'eil).

A later view, more prevalent today is that the m'zuzah protects us not against external harm, but against sinning. Eliezer ben Jacob said "whosoever has the t'fillin on his head, the t'fillin on his arm, the tzizit on his garment and the m'zuzah on his door post is fortified against sinning"

Maimonides claimed the m'zuzah reminded us, each time we left our home and ventured into the world, that worldly affairs were unimportant. Maimonides also claimed to think of the m'zuzah as an amulet was to distort and pervert its true meaning. "Fools pervert for temporal benefit the religious duty of m'zuzah, of proclaiming the Unity of God and the love and service due Him as though this were an amulet."

While having a m'zuzah on your door post is a religious duty, it is actually considered a mitzvah to make m'zuzot for others!!!

Next Month Part 2: Laws concerning the M'zuzah

Social Action Committee

As Jews we are commanded to care for the needy and the stranger. The Torah teaches that caring for less fortunate others is not a matter of charity, but of justice or tzedakah. Please take this commandment to heart by embracing the notion that we can all help to bring comfort to those that are in need. You can start by supporting our annual Kol Nidre Drive to feed the hungry. Please bring a minimum of two food items to service and/or make a donation to "The Corners of Our Fields" High Holiday appeal sponsored by Mazon. In addition:

- ▶ Mark November 9th on your calendar for the CKI/Heartland blood drive. Every 3 seconds a patient needs life-sustaining blood due to an accident, surgery, or ongoing illness. Further information regarding donor qualifications and how to sign up will follow. A minimum of 40 donors (16 and older with written parental approval) is needed, so please tell your friends and neighbors!
- ▶ Continue to tell friends and neighbors of our cellular phone drive. CKI will receive 50¢ for each cell phone sent to Ecophones recycling program, but more importantly, our environment will be protected from potential toxic contamination.
- ▶ Plan for our December new toy or book drive. Items will be donated to Keshet Day School for children and young adults with developmental disabilities.

As always, if you have any questions or suggestions, please contact any Social Action Committee member.

Torah School News

As we begin a new year of Jewish learning it's important to send the right messages to our students. The following are some ways we can encourage positive Jewish learning:

Be a Jewish role model. Let children see that we like being Jewish and are proud of it.

Plan regular visits to Jewish places that you and your child(ren) would enjoy. Let them know there is always more to see and do in the Jewish community and being Jewish can be a fun and exciting adventure.

If you have special Jewish practices or rituals that you enjoy, invite children to watch or join you. You will help them see that rituals are sources of learning and pleasure and that doing anything well takes practice, interest and patience.

Talk about being Jewish and what it means to do Jewish things, especially if you are learning a new skill or beginning a new project. Let children know that learning can also be a challenge for adults too but that it has many rewards.

Remember to praise children's efforts at learning new Jewish skills and show pride in our own as well. Help children feel that learning accomplishments are important ones.

Encourage curiosity in Judaism. Welcome questions from children and ask your own. Discuss where you might go to find the answers, such as the synagogue or library. This will help children recognize the importance of asking questions and encouraging skills necessary for knowing where to find answers.

Let's all work together, home, school and synagogue to create a caring and nurturing learning environment for all.

Hebrew students will decorate the Sukkah during school on Wednesday, October 8 at 5:00pm. Younger students are welcome to join us at that time.

I look forward to seeing all families at "Pizza in the Hut" on Wednesday, October 15. See flyer in this Bulletin for all the details.

Move Over Aunt Jemima!

In crisp white aprons and flipping flapjacks, the USY guys put Aunt Jemima to shame as they turned out pancakes galore at the opening-of-school breakfast on Sunday, September 7th. And the USY gals came in at 8:00 a.m. to set it up, clean it up, and sell the tickets!

A batter full of thanks to these USY'ers who made this entire morning lively and delicious:

Cory Jacoby, Michael Rosenfeld, Jon Glaser, Daniel Ilani, Jason Sigal, Matt Wolf, Sarah Burkner, Michelle Piraino, and Morgan Stanczak.

And special thanks to Gale Jacoby, Maureen and Joe Rosenfeld, and Sarah Wolfensohn for their organizational work, spirit, and energy!

We invite you to share our joy at Shabbat services on Saturday, October 25, 2003 when our daughter Sloane is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah

Please join us for Kiddush luncheon immediately following the service

Greg and Susan Merdinger

Our October B'nai Mitzvah

Sloane Merdinger will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mizvah on October 25, 2003. Sloane is a 7th grade student at Ellis Middle School in Elgin. She loves to ride her horses Mini and Brass, plays guitar, likes to cook, swim and play tennis and likes playing with her dogs Moe and Charly. She is a cheerleader for the Carol Stream Panthers.

Sharing this special occasion with Sloane are her proud parents, Susan and Greg Merdinger, her brother Garrett and sister Sydney. Also sharing this wonderful day are her grandparents Sandra and Don Hurwitz and Sandi Merdinger.

Sloane has learned from her Jewish education that giving up is not an option and that hard work and responsibility pay off.

A Special Going Forth

Speaking the words of T'filat HaDerekh and listening to the blessing from their parents and the words of Dr. Seuss' Oh, The Places You'll Go, Kneseth Israel's recent high school graduates were sent on their way.

At the Lekh Lekha Shabbat service – "A Ceremony of Going Forth" – on August 16, the college-bound graduates, their parents, and some grandparents participated in this unique and moving service. Each student received a Torah honor, they introduced themselves to the congregation and where they were going to attend school, they were presented with a mezuzah that attaches with tape to their college room door post, and the parents blessed their children with the following words:

"May God who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah, bless _____ as they embark on this significant and transforming journey. Give them strength to meet the challenges which lie ahead and the wisdom to choose well at every junction. May their heritage and tradition be the signposts which guide them on their way. Give them the courage to ask questions, seek knowledge and better our world. 'Go forth from your land,' God told Abraham, 'Go forth from your native land, from your father's house, to the land which I will show you, and I will bless you..' May you always feel God's sheltering presence."

The college freshmen who attended with their families were Rebecca Berg, Tammi Linne, Adam Schulman, Jeremy Schweinler, and Shauna Zivin. Shana Bender, Brett Jacoby, Joel Pitzele, and Daniel Zemel were unable to attend.

With the help of Sherry Wiesman, Fern Raben, and Marla Topp, a beautiful extended kiddush followed this special Shabbat service.

CKI Kadima/USY

CKI Kadima and USY would like to thank everyone who supported the Pancake Breakfast. We hope to make it bigger and better every year! We are already looking forward to the activities of October. Our USY presidents, Cory Jacoby and Michael Rosenfeld will attend the Chicago Regional Leadership Training Institute.

The first regional dance of the year will take place on 10/4/03. This is not a dance like prom. It is called a dance, but is actually just an informal get together where the kids hang out together while music plays. It is not a "date thing". It is not dress up. It is a chance to see old friends, make new friends, and have fun. On 10/26/03 the Chicago Regional Kadima Day will take place at the Recreation Centre in Elgin. We are very excited to have the Chicago Region come out to join us in Elgin. So all you Kadima kids, save the date and join in the fun. On 11/16/03, Kadima and USY will join together for an afternoon of Laser Tag. Watch your mail for details.

In mid June of this Year I attended a program at the Spertus Institute for Jewish Studies. The subject of the program was Israel Advocacy. It was the forerunner of similar programs that were to be presented around the country. Chicago was the "pilot" program. The sponsors are UJC (United Jewish Communities) and JCPA (Jewish Council for Public Affairs). WSFI is now working with Jay Tcath of JUF to have some or all of this program available for local Jewish leaders. It will likely be held in early 2004. As the information is finalized, I will report the details.

CKI Sisterhood News

On Rosh Hashanah it is written,
And on Yom Kippur it is sealed.
– Mahzor

As we prepare for the High Holiday Season, we reflect on the year that has passed. We recall our good deeds and accomplishments and think about those deeds that were not as worthy. We recall family members and friends whom we have lost during the year, and how their lives touched us in different ways.

On Rosh Hashanah, we pray for forgiveness and hope that repentance, prayer, and deeds of kindness will ease the severity of our past wrongdoings.

On Yom Kippur we proclaim a day filled with great awe and sanctity. We hear the sounds of the shofar as the day comes to an end and our lives are sealed in the Book of Remembrance for another year.

We are fortunate to be part of a close Jewish community. Our Sisterhood plays an integral role in supporting activities and events in our CKI community. The Women of Valor offer their expertise, time and sometimes brawn to continue to improve our community. Unfortunately, sometimes financial assistance is needed to ensure these activities continue.

We are looking for financial angels to sponsor Break-the-Fast at the conclusion of Yom Kippur. Have your generous deeds sealed in the Book of Remembrance for this year.

"You Oughta Be in Pictures!"

In the spirit of our Sisterhood's L'DOR V'DOR – from generation to generation – theme, we can definitely be active participants if we remember that "a picture is worth a thousand words."

Next time you're in the synagogue, take a stroll along "Memory Lane" located in the first floor classroom hallway. You'll see pictures of many generations of confirmation classes. These Kodak moments begin with black and white and progress to full Technicolor.

As you peruse the photos, you might recognize a person or two or three. Let me know who they are so we can give the faces names and maybe even discover the year of the class. (Besides, it's just fun to look at the photos, especially the one that looks like the Jackson Five.)

Each photo is labeled with a letter. If you should say, "AH HA! I know that person!" just give me the letter of the photo and where that person is standing. For example, "Picture D – third from the left – that's Yetta Yenta."

You get the idea.

So – CATHY ILANI, MARK SEIGLE, DENNIS MARIASIS, SUE JOHNSON, JERRY GOLDSTEIN, et.al, YOUR PICTURES ARE THERE! COME ON DOWN and help us identify the others!

Call me, Ron Raben, at 630-837-6562 or e-mail me at r.raben@worldnet.att.net

MESHUGASS

A visiting cantor was invited to sing traditional Jewish songs at a Brooklyn synagogue.

After the services, he was bragging to members of the synagogue that Lloyd's of London had insured against the loss of his voice for $750,000. Mrs. Siegel, an older lady, said...

"So cantor, what did you do with the money?"

Honorable Menschen

This month we introduce a new feature of Ha Kol. Honorable Menschen will feature stories of interest about people who have provided special service and caring for our congregation and community. In October, Maureen Rosenfeld highlights the Kneseth Israel life of Don and Phyllis Lesser.

On Saturday, September 6, CKI honored Don and Phyllis Lesser for their many years of service and dedication to our congregation. Don grew up here in Elgin and attended Hebrew School in this congregation. Phyllis was raised in Chicago, and was a member of Shaare Tikvah.

As a young man, Don was very involved in our local chapter of B'nai B'rith, serving as President of the Men's Lodge. In this role, he visited the Chicago office one day to pick up a Past President's pin, and it was there that he met Phyllis. Three months later, they were engaged, and three months after that, they married and made their home in Elgin.

Through the years, they have served our congregation in many capacities. Phyllis was President of B'nai B'rith women before becoming President of our Sisterhood. In fact, during her first term as Sisterhood President, Don was also President of the CKI Congregation Board! Phyllis served two terms as Sisterhood President, and Don has been Congregation President three times. During their first term, the traditional two year time period was extended to three in order to have continuity during the change from Rabbi Rose to Rabbi Greenfield. When Rabbi Greenfield became ill, Don organized members to lead Shabbat services, so that B'nei Mitvot could continue. Occasionally, even guests of the families helped to lead services, and other Rabbis and Cantors were hired for High Holidays.

Sons Gary and Rick came on the scene, and as they grew, they too assumed positions of responsibility within BBYO (B'nai B'rith Youth Organization): Gary serving as President, and Rick as Treasurer.

Phyllis described every Wednesday afternoon as "meeting day" rotating Sisterhood, B'nai B'rith Women, and Hadassah every month. Ultimately, Don was elected President of the Northern Illinois Region of B'nai B'rith and served a two year term. It was our local B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge who held a fundraiser during Don's Presidency, and raised enough money to donate the stained glass windows in the CKI sanctuary. Through the years, Don and Phyllis have served our congregation in other roles. Phyllis prepares our annual Memorial Booklet, and edits our Blue Book. Don has served as Chair of the Ritual Committee and as Gabbai, and was editor of the CKI Bulletin for so many years that he can describe the development from ditto to mimeograph, to typed and copied, to computerized and printed!

Currently, Don and Phyllis continue to serve as resources to our congregation. Regarding their many years of service, they say, "It's been fun" but they describe the pleasure of now being able to attend services without worrying about the details. For the time being, they will remain in Elgin, and Don has even joined The Centre, so look for him there if you go to swim or work out. Eventually they say Sarasota Florida may be a future home, but for now they enjoy that locale for just a couple of weeks per winter – not quite ready to be snowbirds yet!

CKI is grateful to them both for all of their care and concern over the years. Through their hard work and countless volunteer hours Don and Phyllis have helped our congregation to become the warm and meaningful place that it is today.

"That's Entertainment!"

How about discounts at restaurants and hotels?

How about 2 for the price of 1?

How about some fun?

Reserve your new ENTERTAINMENT BOOK now!

Seeing that our Hadassah chapter will not be selling the book this year, we at Kneseth Israel will be picking it up. Buy one from us, and both you and the synagogue will reap the benefits!

There is a North/Northwest suburban book and a Western suburban book. Also, you can order an out-of-town book.

Each Entertainment Book is $20.00. It actually pays for itself after the first couple of uses.

Contact Lois Troy (847-741-3548) to reserve your book – or books! It's a great gift!

CKI Book Group

TODAH RABBAH – THANK YOU

We are sincerely grateful for the very beautiful Shabbat service and the extended Kiddush given in our honor.
It was an emotional day for us, to worship with our CKI family and to see so many faces of friends who have also given of themselves in building and sustaining our congregation. Our efforts have been a labor of love.
Thanks to all those who have gone
