A Message from Our President

Change is inevitable. Change can be delightful as we embark on a new adventure. Change can be stressful when it is a response to economic challenges. Modification is one definition of change. Human beings have survived through the millennia due to our ability to adapt to our changing environment. Sometimes we modify aspects of our environment.

Changes are taking place at CKI. The Board of Directors has made severe cuts to the budget in response to reduced income from dues and donations. Employment difficulties have not eluded our membership. Some changes were made to assure accountability. Prior approval for all purchases has resulted in savings in office and maintenance supplies. Contracts were rebid resulting in reduced costs for services. During the coming year email will be substituted for the U.S. mail whenever and wherever possible.

Changes are being implemented to build our membership. People who have never attended High Holiday services at CKI before will receive High Holiday tickets free of charge.

A committee is being formed to develop a multi-level dues structure. Members are encouraged to pay full dues or to voluntarily increase their dues. With a modified dues structure, other members will be spared the embarrassment of requesting a dues variance. Above all, young families will have time to adjust to the mitzvah of contributing to our community at a higher level.

The Jewish people have survived due to our ability to come together to adapt to various challenges. We fought for the right to pray to one G-d and to study Torah. Let us change, adapt, and grow together.

B'Shalom,
Barbara Maring, CKI President

From the Rabbi's Study...

As the High Holidays approach, I present you with a policy that can make your life better in the New Year.

Perhaps your life would be better if you could exert greater control over other people. We can do that.

Let's start by asking, if you had the power to control others, what would you do with it?

Well, you'd try to make them better people. You'd make their actions more loving, their concerns more benevolent, their words more kind, and their company more pleasant. And while you're at it, you'd straighten out their motivations and get rid of the bad ones.

You can do that. You can improve all the people you encounter in the New Year. Here's how:

Think better of them.

I don't mean that you should fool yourself, and accept things that you know aren't true, but there is great harm and no great benefit in thinking badly of others. And, face it, you don't know. But give people the benefit of the doubt, and it changes the world that you live in. No longer is anyone badly motivated. People treat each other better now in your world. They are more lovable when you see them with loving eyes. You are surrounded by better people.

They may still disagree with you, but now it's no longer because they are nasty and disagreeable. They may simply believe the points that they make. Or they may be threatened by some point that you make, and need reassurance. Or they may be relying on experiences different from yours. Or they may have legitimate needs that are different from yours. Or they may have had a bad day. Or you may have.

A great lesson about controlling one's world came to me from a mohel that I knew long ago. He and I were conversing in someone's home before a bris, when a man came up to us and said, "Hey, do you want to hear a sick joke?"

The mohel didn't miss a beat. He answered smoothly, "No, but thanks." I had never heard anyone say that before. And I am convinced that this mohel lived in a better world than I did. In the world that he lived in, the sense of humor was healthy.

I remember hearing about some comedians who performed for an audience of observant Jews. Some knew their audience and some didn't, so that in the end one unfortunate comedian said onstage, "I thought that was a great joke, and nobody laughed."

The comedians who failed were the ones who played with personalities. Those who succeeded played with logic. Of course, they didn't use profanity. But also, they didn't cut anyone down. And beyond that, they didn't complain about their lives. Their jokes were funny and healthy, and people laughed.

As my kids were growing up, I usually played any music they liked if it was decent. But there was one song that I would not allow, and I always turned it off. It was called, "Because of You," and it was a complaint about how the problems in the character's life were caused by someone else.

I feel bad for people who live that way. Myself, I don't have to live in a world where other people cause my problems. And I don't.

Neither, for that matter, did the ancient rabbis, who wrote into the Musaf prayer, "For our sins were we exiled from our land." They chose to live in a world where our problems were caused not by the Babylonians or by the Romans, but by us. It's the ultimate power over others.

We can learn this power in part by analyzing the following poem by Mary Youngquist:

*That deep red rose I see;
Its thorn I just ignore.
The scent that's borne to me—
It's nothing I deplore!*

*Those scratches that I got—
Before I just complain
About the pain a lot,
I think of beauty's gain.*

Forget about analyzing it. Let's just recite it in a different voice:

*That deep red rose—I see its thorn.
I just ignore the scent that's borne.
To me it's nothing. I deplore
Those scratches that I got before.
I just complain about the pain.
A lot I think of beauty's gain!*

Two ways to control a rose. One makes it better, the other worse.

We have the same control over others.

Yom Kippur Memorial Booklet

Dear Members and Friends:

On Yom Kippur, we remember our dear departed in prayer and pledge charitable offerings in their honor.

It has been the tradition in our congregation to publish a memorial booklet which is distributed on Yom Kippur at the time of the Yizkor Service. In this booklet, we list the names of our departed loved ones as a tribute to their memory.

We hope you will take this opportunity to memorialize your loved ones by including their names in the memorial booklet.

Yom Kippur is fast approaching. You will soon receive a letter asking that you send in the names you wish to have included in the memorial booklet.

Please be sure your list reaches me no later than September 7.

Your donation to Congregation Kneseth Israel will provide much needed help to maintain the synagogue and religious school and is greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Phyllis Lesser, Chairman

Sisterhood News

In July, we went on a garden walk and shared dinner. Much thanks to Pat Hill of Elgin for graciously taking us on an educational tour of her fabulous garden! This would not have been possible, however, without the organizational talents of Medina Gross—thank you, Medina! It was a nice event, just spending time with each other.

Looking at my calendar, I realize that summer is half over and fall is approaching.

Elul, which begins this year on August 11, is a month of preparation for the High Holidays. But it is the middle of the previous month, Av, that preparation for the holidays begins for me. It is when I clean the house from top to bottom, send holiday cards, locate old family recipes, make honey cakes, and send them to family and friends. It is also the time when summer vacations come to an end and we begin the school year and the calendar for CKI.

As you do your planning, please keep in mind the CKI Gift Shop for any hostess gifts or finishing touches to your own table.

Sisterhood is sponsoring the dairy Break-the-Fast, as we do every year. Please consider giving generously to help us out. A few "angels" would be nice! See the RSVP form above.

Your sisterhood is part of CKI and is here for you. We would like to see you. Check out the calendar for upcoming events and mark the dates on your own calendar. August 10 is a board meeting that is open to all Sisterhood members where we will confirm plans. Questions? Please call. Ideas? Let us know. Better yet, come join us!

Pace yourself in your own preparations so you can enjoy the holiday season!

—Risa Cohen, Sisterhood president

A "Chill-out" room will be available for small children and their parents who need to take a break from services. Appropriate toys and books will be available.

CKI HIGH HOLIDAY TICKET POLICY 5771 / 2010

Because of the special demands created by the numbers of persons wishing to attend services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, it is necessary to continue the policy of "admission by ticket only" for services.

Tickets are mailed shortly before the Holidays. Only those members who have paid all dues and fees owed will receive tickets.

Tickets are marked and perforated for each service. Security officers/ushers will collect them.

Tickets are required for each member of the family. No tickets are required for the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur.

No member is turned away because of financial need. If there are financial circumstances that prevent payment of dues, please contact the president, Barb Maring, to make special arrangements.

People who have never attended High Holiday services at CKI before will receive High Holiday tickets free of charge.

Members may bring guests who do not live in the immediate area at $150 per person. Children of members who are not legal dependents and do not live in the area are considered guests.

Married children of family members are considered a family unit unto themselves.

Arrangements may be made to apply the ticket cost to membership dues. Membership information is sent upon request.

IMPORTANT RITUAL & HIGH HOLIDAY INFORMATION

IF YOU BUILD IT THEY WILL COME!

THE COMMUNITY SUKKAH WILL BE ERECT-ED AT THE SYNAGOGUE ON SUNDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 19, AT 9:30.
IF ENOUGH BUILDERS SHOW UP, IT TAKES
ONLY A SHORT TIME. PLEASE HELP!

RULES OF DECORUM

PLEASE OBSERVE THE FOLLOWING
CRITERIA WHILE ON SYNAGOGUE PREMISES. ALL WHO ARE PARTICIPATING WILL GREATLY APPRECIATE YOUR COOPERATION.

Men are required to wear headcoverings; women are requested to wear headcoverings. However, everyone is required to wear headcoverings on the bimah.

Appropriate attire is requested during all services.

Smoking is prohibited on synagogue premises. This includes the parking lot.

No food, drink, or gum chewing is permitted in the sanctuary.

Please respect those who are davening/praying by minimizing conversation.

Cameras and other electronic devices should not be brought into or used on the premises on Shabbat or Yom Tov.

No cellular phones are to be brought into the sanctuary during services.

Pagers, if necessary, are to be placed on vibrate (non-audio) mode.

Entry into the sanctuary will be limited during certain portions of the service, such as during Ark openings, Kedushah, Hineni, Rabbi's sermon, and officers' speeches.

Services in the main sanctuary are designed for adults. Consider child care at home. But if you must bring small children with you, we ask your cooperation in seeing that they do not become a distraction for those around you.

KEVER AVOT SERVICE

The annual Kever Avot Memorial Service will be held at the CKI Section of Elgin's Bluff City Cemetery at 1:00 pm on Sunday, September 12. Entrance to the cemetery should be through the east gate. Please let the guides know you are there for the CKI service, and you will be able to drive to CKI's section.

Kever Avot is the customary visit to graves of loved ones during the month of Elul. The service is brief and allows family and friends to say memorial prayers for those who are no longer with us. It is also customary for anyone to visit the CKI section even though their family or friends rest in another part of the country. This is a way to remember.

TASHLIKH

It is customary to walk to a body of water to perform Tashlikh during the High Holidays. This ritual demonstrates the separation of sin from our lives. Into the water we symbolically cast our sins of the year gone by, and we reaffirm our intention that life in the new year be renewed by a new heart and a new spirit. To celebrate this ritual, we are gathering on Walton Island, at the Fox River in downtown Elgin, immediately following Rosh Hashanah services on Thursday, September 9. Bridges access the island immediately to the west of the Hemmens Auditorium. You are encouraged to bring a dairy or vegetarian picnic lunch.

HANDY HOLIDAY TIPS READING AIDS

Special booklets containing congregational selections have been prepared in transliteration. These are available to those who do not read Hebrew fluently to supplement the Machzor. The booklet allows everyone to join in the traditional congregational prayers. Ask your ushers for a copy. In addition, there are a limited number of large-print copies of the Machzor available. You may also obtain these from the ushers.

PLEASE BE ON TIME

If you have been assigned an honor, please be in the sanctuary at least 15 minutes earlier than the estimated time.

HANG ONTO YOUR BOOK

When ascending the bimah for your honor, please take your Machzor with you so that you may follow the service.
All persons are required to wear headcoverings on the bimah.

TALLIT

It is not customary to wear a tallit for the Erev Rosh Hashanah service on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8. Please remember to bring your own tallit for the balance of the High Holiday services. Women are encouraged to wear a tallit if they so desire.

YOM KIPPUR FASHION TIP

The proper footwear is anything but leather soles for Yom Kippur. Leather-bodied shoes with plastic/rubber soles are acceptable, as are leather belts.

Wearing white is quite acceptable for Yom Kippur. It reminds us of the purity we seek to attain, of the angels we are a little less than in Creation, and of our deceased loved ones who are buried in simple white linen garments.

IT'S TIME AGAIN FOR OUR ANNUAL NEW YEARS GREETING CARD

This is a simple and special way to wish every one of our fellow congregants a Happy and Healthy New Year!

The Elgin Chapter of Hadassah is sponsoring our annual sale of one-pound round challahs (plain or raisin) for the new year, on Tuesday, September 7, (baked that morning by Shalom Kosher Bakery in Buffalo Grove). We are also offering a special hostess package of one plain challah and a 4 oz jar of locally produced honey, which would make a nice hostess gift during the high holidays. Prices remain the same as last year.

Your order will be available for pickup at CKI on Tuesday September 7, between 11:00 am and 1:00 pm or between 3:00 and 8:00 pm (the Board is meeting that evening) or at other times by arrangement. Rather than having people make a special trip to CKI, Medina is looking for volunteers to pick up challahs for their neighbors. For example, Nancy Zimmerman has offered to pick up challahs for those living on Elgin's west side.

Please mail your orders to Medina Gross, 833 Prospect St, Elgin 60120, by August 27, or you may call (847) 695-1316 or send email to medinag@gmail.com and pay when you pick up your order. Checks should be made out to Elgin Hadassah.
