

Celebrate Simchat Torah at Congregation Kneseth Israel

September 23, 2012, Elgin, Illinois

Come and celebrate Simchat Torah at CKI on Monday, October 8th at 6:30 p.m. Each week Jews around the world read a portion of the Torah, the Five Books of Moses; and once each year they celebrate the completion of the one reading cycle and the beginning of the next. Simchat Torah is a joyous holiday and one that is particularly fun for children of all ages.

Congregation Kneseth Israel will also be conducting its regular Sabbath Services on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. and on Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. Services will be conducted by Rabbi Margaret Frisch Klein along with members of the congregation. You do not have to be a member to attend religious services. CKI welcomes interfaith families.

CKI is located at 330 Division Street in Elgin; parking is available behind the building. For more information contact the office at 847-741-5656.

CKI serves the diverse Jewish Community of the Greater Fox Valley area. We offer weekly services, a religious school, observance of all lifecycle events, and a variety of additional programming. For regular updates or more information, please visit our website at www.ckielgin.org.
