Chanukah Bazaar at Congregation Kneseth Israel

November 11, 2012, Elgin, Illinois

The Sisterhood of Congregation Kneseth Israel (CKI) is hosting its annual Chanukah Bazaar. According to Tina Wolf, co-chairperson of the event, "We have an outstanding selection of items for Chanukah. We have several "green items." Mezuzahs made from recycled wood and fair trade candles made in South Africa. We have toys for the young and beautiful jewelry featuring artists from around the country. In addition we have decorations, candles, menorahs, dreidels, and wrapping paper you will not see anywhere else in the Fox Valley. Chanukah begins December 8, so let's start shopping." In addition to holiday items, the CKI gift shop contains a wide variety of Judaica, and Jewish themed gifts. Local craft people will also have displays at the Bazaar.
