

For Immediate Release:

Enjoy Chanukah and Shabbat at Congregation Kneseth Israel

December 9, 2012, Elgin, Illinois

On Friday evening, December 14, 2012 instrumental music will return to Congregation Kneseth Israel (CKI) after a nearly ten year hiatus. What is getting the "band back together?" Chanukah! Chanukah is one of the more joyful holidays in the Jewish Calendar and seemed like a proper opportunity to reintroduce instrumental music into the Friday night services. According to CKI's Rabbi, Margaret Frisch Klein, "CKI is excited to have a return of instrumental music on some Friday nights. For many people instrumental music enhances the worship experience. Come join us for what will be a fun and festive evening where we will celebrate Chanukah and raise our voices in song." Services begin at 7:30 p.m..

You do not have to be a member to attend services. CKI welcomes interfaith families. CKI is located at 330 Division Street in Elgin; parking is available behind the building. For more information contact the office at 847-741-5656.

CKI serves the diverse Jewish Community of the Greater Fox Valley area. We offer weekly services, a religious school, observance of all lifecycle events, and a variety of additional programming. For regular updates or more information, please visit our website at www.ckielgin.org.
